

This week's Hero

Fifty years ago on Saturday, Dale won his very first tournament as a Professional.

It was the Spanish Open and he was only 18 years and 290 days old at the time, setting the record on the European Tour for the youngest ever winner. That record stood for 38 years until it was beaten by Danny Lee in 2009.

We will be giving Saturday's competition a Spanish flair – with some special prizes to celebrate this auspicious anniversary. Plus we'll be giving all of Saturday's golfers a snack after their round!

Congratulations to the big man!

Unlock lower scores
Are you setting the right tone?

Walking along the fairway to your second with a clear sight of your ball is an extremely satisfying experience.

Do you often have to search for your tee shot in the thick stuff during a round? Let's change that.

Find more fairways >

Percentage tee shot

Put yourself in the fairway, even if it means a longer second.

Perfect tee shot

Hit the fairway with every metre of distance you're capable of.

"Whether you're playing from spot 1 or 2, the game is a lot more enjoyable from there."

Joy-destroyer tee shot

If you're struggling with a regular miss,
the rest of the hole becomes a struggle. The good news is, we can help you fix this.

If you haven't broken 85 by now

Getting further down more fairways could be your breakthrough.

AN HISTORIC VICTORY

Srixon staffer Hideki Matsuyama, made history at this year's Masters by becoming the first male Japanese golfer to win a major. In addition to winning his first green jacket, this is his 15th worldwide victory and 6th career win on the PGA TOUR.

Congratulations, Hideki Matsuyama!
