Spider Cup by Chris Delport

The much-anticipated annual Spider Cup was held this past weekend, in conjunction with the Ryder Cup in Rome.

This event is contested between 2 teams of 20 players each, the Chairman's team, captained by Chris Delport (this year the team was dubbed Dutchman's Dreamers), and the Captain's team captained by Francois Anderson. The event was preceded by a lot of banter from both sides, and players were raring to do battle. The format was foursomes (also known as alternate shots) on Saturday and betterball with a scramble drive on Sunday. The respective captains decided on the pairings and the opponents were drawn before each round.

Day one saw the following battles (Chairman's team names first):

Schalk Hattingh / Rhynhardt Potgieter beating Johan Graaff / Johann Badenhorst

Chris Delport / Dale Michler halving with Francois Anderson / Roscoe Hall

Adam Hayes / Chris Ungerer halving with Neels Roelfze / Jordan Stoop

Estiaan de Jager / Kevin Naidoo losing against Joe Phiri / Julian Rapp

Brent Goddard / Dirk Burger beating Robin Ashby / Sean Ehlers

Andre van Rensburg / Basil Mann beating Floris de Klerk / Walter Fuls

Herman Vorster / Petrie van Eeden losing against Hein Wijberg / Ronan du Plessis

Leon du Toit / Schalk Coetzer beating Ina Rouse / Monique Goddard

Alf Hare / Robert Oosthuizen losing against Corne van Zyl / Marco van Zyl

Hennie Nel / Barries Barnard beating Shawn Rouse / Ronnie Els

The scores after day one Chairman's team's - 6 pts / Captain's team - 4 pts

The results for day 2 was:

Andre van Rensburg / Basil Mann halving with Robin Ashby / Sean Ehlers

Chris Delport / Dale Michler beating Francois Anderson / Roscoe Hall

Estiaan de Jager / Kevin Naidoo beating Hein Wijberg / Ronan du Plessis

Schalk Hattingh / Rhynhardt Potgieter beating Neels Roelfze / Jordan Stoop

Brent Goddard / Dirk Burger beating Johan Graaff / Johann Badenhorst

Leon du Toit / Schalk Coetzer beating Joe Phiri / Julian Rapp

Herman Vorster / Petrie van Eeden beating Shawn Rouse / Ronnie Els

Albert Foot / Barries Barnard beating Corne van Zyl / Marco van Zyl

Adam Hayes / Chris Ungerer beating Ina Rouse / Monique Goddard

Alf Hare / Robert Oosthuizen losing Floris de Klerk / Walter Fuls

Sunday's result was a resounding win for the Chairman's team 8.5 points to 1.5 points with the overall result of the Spider Cup being 14.5 points to the Chairman's team - 5.5 points to the Captain's team.

This event was such a success, and enjoyed by all that it was decided to host it on a quarterly basis.

(Note from Dale: With Scottie Scheffler and Brooks Koepka going down 9&7 to Viktor Hovland and Ludwig Aberg in teh Ryder Cup on Saturday, the Captain's team could let that record go unchallenged. Shawn Rouse and Ronnie Els managed to equal the beating going down 9&7 to Petrie van Eeden and Herman Vorster.)

The missing link

Flex striking improvements!

After that missing link between you and better ball striking? Finding the appropriate shaft flex for your swing may deliver the distance and accuracy improvement you've been longing for throughout the bag!

Suit your speed

Flex refers to the shaft's ability to bend under the force of a golf swing, so a fast-swinging player likely has a radically different ideal shaft flex to a slower-swinging golfer.

A shaft that's too light for your swing speed often results in wildly inconsistent strikes that produce excessive spin-rates. Game a shaft that's too heavy and your launch conditions will be compromised as you'll battle to launch the ball into the air.

Launch monitor data is a great indicator of your ideal shaft flex. For example, if after hitting 10 drives your average clubhead speed is north of 95 mph we may suggest that you're better suited to a stiff-flex driver than a regular shaft.

No standard specs

There's no industry standard for the amount of flex that classifies a shaft as stiff rather than regular, it can differ from one club manufacturer to the next.
